Overview

Austin brings exuberance and a sincere approach to his law practice. Whether it involves managing high volume caseloads or resolving complex situations, his goal is to provide a swift and beneficial resolution to every matter that crosses his desk.

His work history includes a clerkship at a law firm in Burlington, NC, where he presented oral motions before a District court judge for several matters and prepared numerous legal documents. Additionally, he served as a legal resident at the NC Agricultural & Technical State University and volunteered with Wills for Heroes and Legal Aid Clinics, while in Greensboro.

Austin enjoys playing various sports, traveling with his girlfriend, or watching his favorite D.C.-based sports teams. He plans to eventually visit all 50 U.S. states (the count currently stands at 30).
