Overview

Elizabeth Calis brings a rare combination of perspectives to her work: she has served the public as a prosecutor, counseled from the inside at a Fortune 100 corporation, and completed a judicial clerkship, with each experience sharpening her instincts as an advocate.

At Hedrick Gardner, Elizabeth brings that breadth of experience to bear for her clients, understanding litigation from the inside out, whether anticipating how a judge will view a matter, navigating the business realities that drive corporate clients, or sizing up the other side of the courtroom.

A graduate of Wake Forest University, Elizabeth earned her Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy. She went on to earn her J.D. from the University of South Carolina School of Law and is admitted to practice in both North Carolina and Colorado, as well as before the United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina.
