Overview

Stephanie Wallace desires the best outcome for each client while ensuring a fair result for all involved, employing relentless loyalty and a keen attention to detail to achieve her goal. "I have always found the legal field interesting and challenging. I seek to continually learn and push myself out of my comfort zone."

Always up for a challenge, Stephanie began her unique journey from her hometown in western NY and acquired her degree in North Carolina. Her diligent pursuit of excellence led to a JD and a CALI Award at the Charlotte School of Law, the first college degree in her family, and subsequent bar admissions in both North Carolina and New York.

Stephanie enjoys a good mystery novel, spending time with her two German Shepherds and two Corgis, and is an avid Pittsburgh Steelers fan. She and her husband have made an annual tradition of visiting Las Vegas, their favorite vacation spot and their wedding site.
