Hedrick Gardner attorneys Brooks Miller and Beth Bennett presented at the North Carolina Association of Defense Attorneys (NCADA) fall seminar in Greensboro on November 6th. They were joined by Rebekah Wilson of the North Carolina Chamber for the session "Hot Topics & Emerging Issues in Civil Defense Practice."

The panel offered practical insights for claims professionals and civil trial attorneys on the developments shaping claims handling and litigation strategy in North Carolina. Topics included the state's recent ban on third-party litigation funding, changes to UM/UIM coverage under S.L. 2023-133, and other legal developments affecting insurers, defense counsel, and claims professionals.

Brooks Miller is a Partner in Hedrick Gardner's Charlotte office, where she focuses on civil litigation. Beth Bennett is a Partner in the firm's Wilmington office, where she focuses on civil litigation.
