Commercial Litigation

July 1, 2024

Hedrick Gardner is pleased to announce that one of our attorneys and two practice groups are ranked in the 2024 edition of Chambers USA, a highly regarded legal industry guide.

Patricia Shields is ranked in Litigation: General Commercial in North Carolina. A highly experienced trial and appellate attorney, Tricia's practice focuses on civil litigation. She represents people and their businesses in a wide variety of cases, including complex commercial litigation, malpractice and professional responsibility, products liability claims, and civil rights claims. She also litigates before occupational licensing boards, defending and prosecuting licensees.

Additionally, the firm's North Carolina Insurance practice is ranked in the USA Guide and the dispute resolution practice is ranked in the Charlotte Regional Spotlight for 2024.

The annual Chambers USA guide is the definitive mark of excellence across the legal industry. Law firms, legal departments, and attorneys are ranked based on in-depth research and an interview process. For more information, visit Chambers.com.
