Overview

Hedrick Gardner's highly-experienced attorneys regularly represent insurance carriers in complicated insurance issues, coverage disputes, and claims.

Our skilled attorneys provide counsel and litigation through every facet of Insurance Law. We've earned our reputation of excellence in and out of the courtroom by providing clients with the cost-effective, quality service they need. Whether dealing with risk management, policy review, claim investigation or mediation, our Insurance Law team is ready to help. While our goal is to avoid litigation if feasible, we understand legal action is sometimes necessary. Our attorneys aggressively litigate cases while always striving to tailor our services to fit our clients' needs.

Bad Faith/Extra Contractual Liability

Bad faith claims jeopardize a company's integrity and put its business at risk. Our Insurance Law attorneys understand the intricacy of bad faith matters and work hard to defend against those claims. Our Insurance law team has been recognized for successfully litigating bad faith claims in state and federal courts and knows what it takes to protect you.

Insurance Services Include:

- Insurance Coverage Analysis
- Insurance Coverage Litigation
- First Party Extra-Contractual Litigation, including claims for bad faith and unfair and deceptive trade practices
- Assisting With Special Investigation Unit (SIU) Investigation
- Conducting Examinations Under Oath (EUO)
- Defending Errors & Omissions Of Insurance Agents
