Alicia Clawson set her sights on a career as an attorney at a young age and never looked back. She actively listens to her clients and enjoys persevering through the details of each matter on their behalf. One of her favorite parts about practicing law is learning about her client's unique industries so she is best equipped to defend them in their workers' compensation claims.

Alicia is a certified mediator by the South Carolina Board of Arbitrator and Mediator Certification, equipping her with the necessary skills to represent clients in the mediation and arbitration of various disputes. Her experience spans the public and private sectors with prominent positions in the South Carolina Department of Insurance, as well as serving as Executive Director of the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission. She also served as an Adjunct Professor of Law for 10 years at St. Leo University.

When not practicing law, Alicia enjoys spending time with her husband, two daughters, and three dogs. In the warmer months, you can often find them enjoying the lake as a family.
