B.S., NC State University, 2018 (summa cum laude)

BAR & COURT ADMISSIONS

North Carolina State Bar

Naturally skilled at advocacy and critical thinking, Matthew Grice enjoys working as a civil litigator. He is a lifelong resident of eastern North Carolina and a proud first-generation attorney.

Matthew graduated Summa Cum Laude from NC State with a degree in Business Administration, specializing in operations and supply chain management. His undergraduate studies offered him unique exposure to some of the dynamic issues his clients face.

Matthew received the Dean's Excellence Scholarship to Campbell Law. He served as a 3L Student Bar Association Class Representative and as a Student Bar Association Committee Chair.

Matthew was a Summer Associate for a civil litigation firm and interned for Judge Jefferson Griffin at the NC Court of Appeals. In these roles, he developed strong communication skills that he utilizes daily.

Matthew is a lifelong fan of NCSU athletics and Atlanta Braves baseball. When neither of his teams are playing, he enjoys reading, landscape photography, hunting, fishing, and enjoying the outdoors.
