Jada Bianca Anderson puts her detail oriented nature to work for each client and enjoys finding creative solutions to challenges.

JB attended law school at the University of North Carolina, where she was a competing member and coach on the Broun National Trial Team. She was also active in the Black Law Students Association and National Lawyers Guild and served in executive capacities for both. Before joining Hedrick Gardner, JB was a student litigation attorney handling asylum claims at UNC's Immigration Clinic. She performed 384 hours of pro bono work and completed a legal internship at the North Carolina Department of Justice.

Outside work, JB enjoys interior design and cooking.
