(summa cum laude), 1997

Luke Sbarra believes successful client representation derives from proactive and hands-on legal management, aggressive legal work, and timely and accurate reporting. He is AV rated by Martindale-Hubbell, peer nominated and accepted into the Federation of Defense and Corporate Counsel (FDCC), and North Carolina peer lawyers voted him a 2018 Business North Carolina Legal Elite in Litigation.

Luke's practice consists of professional liability, products liability, construction defect, premises liability and liquor liability, and commercial litigation. His clients include individuals, businesses, insurers, and their insureds. He has first-chair trial experience in multiple different North Carolina counties in each of these practice areas.

In the area of professional liability, a significant portion of his practice consists of the defense of the long-term care industry (SNF/ALF). He has arbitration and trial court experience with respect to claims against long-term care providers alleging falls, decubitus ulceration, elopement, sepsis, choking, sexual assault, and spontaneous fracture.

He also represents other professionals in a wide variety of professional malpractice matters from inception through dispositive motions and trial, including attorneys, dentists, design professionals, commercial and residential property appraisers, and insurance agents and brokers.

Luke enjoys giving back and has served on the Steering Committee of Hands on Charlotte since 2009, helping mobilize volunteers to strengthen the Charlotte community. He also donates legal services to Charlotte Center for Legal Advocacy.

He and his wife have two children and have lived in Charlotte since 2000. When he is not working,, Luke enjoys spending time with his family, exercising, reading, watching sports, and vacationing at the beach.
