William is a civil litigation attorney practicing in the firm's Charlotte office. He enjoys the intellectual challenges and diverse cases that his civil litigation practice offers.

William received his J.D. from the University of South Carolina School of Law. In law school, William was an involved member of the Moot Court Bar. He was inducted into the Order of the Barristers honor society in recognition of his achievements on the team. He also received a CALI Award for his excellence in Appellate Advocacy his 2L year.

Before Law school, William earned a B.A. in political science at Fordham University in New York. After college, he was a paralegal at the Manhattan District Attorney's Office for several years. His experience and admiration for the Assistant District Attorneys he worked with were major influences on his decision to pursue a career as a litigator.

William was born and raised in Charlotte, North Carolina. He is proud to follow in the footsteps of his father and grandfather, who have also practiced law in Charlotte.
