HONORS

Trial Advocacy Honor Board, Charlotte School of Law

A skilled creative thinker, William Myers is passionate about simplifying complex legal matters for his clients, transforming them into workable solutions. His practice focuses in the area of workers' compensation. Building strong relationships with his clients demonstrates his deep commitment to them, and his focus on developing a thorough understanding of their individual needs and cases is key to improving outcomes for his clients.

During law school, William was a member of the Trial Advocacy Honor Board and competed in the Estrella Trial Advocacy Competition in Puerto Rico. He remains passionate about trial advocacy and enjoys mentoring local high school mock trial teams.

Prior to joining Hedrick Gardner, William served in a variety of capacities at other firms, experience that he utilizes to best serve his clients.

When not practicing law, William is an enthusiastic Washington Capitals fan and enjoyed cheering them to their first Stanley Cup victory in 2018. When not cheering for his favorite team, William spends his free time pursuing a variety of hobbies, as well as spending time with his wife and their dog, Cooper.
